CALL TO WORSHIP –

[©2021, Rev. Ruth Shilling Hainsworth. All rights reserved.]

This morning we gather to recognize and celebrate that in Christ's Resurrection, we too are resurrected. We are renewed and transformed, open and prepared for new possibilities. In your resurrection we are like butterflies freed from our cocoons, like Lazarus freed from his graveclothes – free to be whoever it is you need us to be in this moment. Free to be more than we ever dreamed we could be as we acknowledge with joy that with you, all things are possible.

- 1. This is a day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on,
Time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that's gone.*
- 2. For by the life and death of Jesus, love's mighty Spirit now as then,
Can make for us a world of difference, as faith and hope are born again.*

Revolutionary God, in raising Jesus Christ you used great energy, creating a new people who share a common life, a common witness, a commitment to prayer and responding to the needs of others. We confess we are sometimes still afraid to risk ourselves and our things in creating your new world. Forgive us our hesitation and fill us with new energy to build community, peace and justice on earth. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

1. *It only takes a spark to get a fire going, and soon
All around can warm up in its glowing;
that’s how it is with God’s love, once you’ve experienced it;
You spread God’s love to everyone, you want to pass it on.*

2. *What a wondrous time is spring when all the trees are budding,
And birds begin to sing, the flowers start their blooming;
That’s how it is with God’s love, once you’ve experienced it;
You want to sing, it’s fresh like spring, you want to pass it on.*

Matthew 6:1-4

Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

‘So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Matthew 25:44-45

Then they also will answer, “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?” Then he will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.”
