An Affirmation of Faith -- An Affirmation of God's Freeing Love

[adapted from Touch Holiness, Duck & Tirabassi, Eds., ©1990. The Pilgrim Press. p. 211]

God's love frees me to be the person I am without having to become more attractive, more intelligent, more popular.

God's love frees me to live in confidence, not needing to be self-absorbed, but ready to listen and to hear the stories of others.

God's love frees me to take risks, to surprise even myself with courage, sometimes to fall flat on my face – but always to move onward with the knowledge that God is encouraging me.

God's love frees me to view the world not from the standpoint of wealth gained or ambition achieved, but from the perspective of relationships lived and human love shared.

God's love frees me to put my sins behind me, to know that no sin is too great or too small to be healed by God's gentle touch.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

#A MOMENT TO BREATHE is an experience of Thich Nhat Hahn's breath of 10 exercise. It is very simple, inviting you to breathe as you normally would but counting each breath in and each breath out until you reach 10. This is a remarkably simple but highly effective breathing exercise that calms your mind and heart.

LUKE 2:41-52

Now every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival. When the festival ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends. When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety." He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.
