CALL TO WORSHIP — from Psalm 71

One: In you, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.

All: In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me.

One: Be to me a rock of refuge, a strong fortress to save me.

All: For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust.

UNISON PRAYER OF REFLECTION

[Bankson & Sokolove, Eds. Calling on God, ©2014 Skylight Paths Publishing, p. 221-2]

How lovely is your dwelling place, most Holy One. Our souls long for your presence; our hearts and bodies sing our joy to the living God. In our prayers and in our singing, in our words and in our silence, bring us ever closer to your heart and will. Enable us to know that our strength is in you alone. Clothe us in your loving power, so that we may live in you and become your people in every aspect of our lives. Amen.

MOMENT FOR MISSION — The Blessing of the School Supplies

One: Merciful God, as this new school year begins, we are grateful for students, teachers, school staff, parents, caregivers and administrators. The challenges our schools face are considerable and yet they keep plugging away at the work of teaching and learning together.

All: We ask for your blessing on teachers and staff at every level, often struggling with expectations impossible to meet and yet they still keep smiling. They still keep putting their students first. Fill them with your strength and resilience every day.

One: We pray for our students and the adults who love and care for them outside of school. May their homes be filled with kindness and with patience and strength for dealing with all the things that are not as they should be. Surround them with your abiding love and be with them in all the moments the new school year will hold, the good and the bad, the unfortunate and the amazing, the everyday and the extraordinary.

All: We pray for a better year; for a safe return to classrooms; for the health of students, teachers and school staff; for school boards and administrators under pressure to make difficult decisions; and for parents exhausted by the rigors of life each day.

One: This morning, Holy One, we especially ask your blessing on these school supplies we have collected together to be shared at middle schools. May these items carry with them our tangible love and strength for students and teachers for the year just beginning. May they be used to fill empty spaces in lives as well as on shelves.

All: All this we ask in the name of Jesus whose love of teaching was the foundation of his ministry among us. Amen.

#A MOMENT TO BREATHE is an experience of Thich Nhat Hanh's breath of 10 exercise. It is very simple, inviting you to breathe as you normally would but counting each breath in and each breath out until you reach 10. This is a remarkably simple but highly effective breathing exercise that calms your mind and heart.

EXODUS 2:5-10 & 15:20-21

The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. "This must be one of the Hebrews' children," she said. Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Yes." So the girl went and called the child's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, "because," she said, "I drew him out of the water."

Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing. And Miriam sang to them: "Sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider he has thrown into the sea."
