UNISON PRAYER OF REFLECTION

[Adapted from Calling on God, Bankson & Sokolove, Eds., ©2014, Skylights Paths Publishing, p. 302]

God of past, present and future, we acknowledge this day that we have been tested and chastened in so many unexpected ways these past months. We gather here this morning to celebrate that we are never left alone and hopeless. You lead us here, to this place, where we know your presence, where we feel your compassion and your comfort. You invite us to turn away from fear and anger and toward you and the new life you offer. Hear now our prayers of praise and thanks that the Risen Christ has shared our earthly life and conquered death to reveal to us your truth. The impossible is always possible with your love at the center of our lives. In Jesus name we pray, Alleluia and Amen!

#A MOMENT TO BREATHE is an experience of Thich Nhat Hanh's breath of 10 exercise. It is very simple, inviting you to breathe as you normally would but counting each breath in and each breath out until you reach 10. If you lose track of your count at any point, start over. This is a remarkably simple but highly effective breathing exercise that calms your mind and heart. Enjoy! 😊

TO ANY VISITORS WITH US THIS MORNING, WELCOME! We are so glad you decided to join us! We Hope you will take one of our Welcome brochures and leave the information tear-off in in the offering plates at the rear of the sanctuary. JOHN 20:1-17

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”
